

Louis the frog plays a joke

By Joshua Beesley, age 7 (year 3)

One upon a time there was a frog called Louis. He is spotty and green and he is a talking frog.

Unlike other frogs, he lives in a house near you. His friends are Crocgy - the crocodile, Rah-rah - the lion, Batty - the bat, and Oohoo - the monkey. And they all live together with Louis.

One day, they all decided to go on an outing. Louis decided to play a joke on his friends. He got up early to make a treasure map and hid it in his pocket.

They all went in to the forest for their outing and Louis dropped the treasure map and then picked it up and said "Look! I found a treasure map!"

They followed the treasure map and went into a maze. The map showed them the way to the gold. Finally they found an 'X' on the ground and started to dig. They found no real gold but instead there were lots of gold chocolate coins.

That's when they realised that Louis had played a joke on them - there was no real treasure after all. They laughed and shared the chocolate coins out to eat.
