

Louis the Frog Plays a Joke

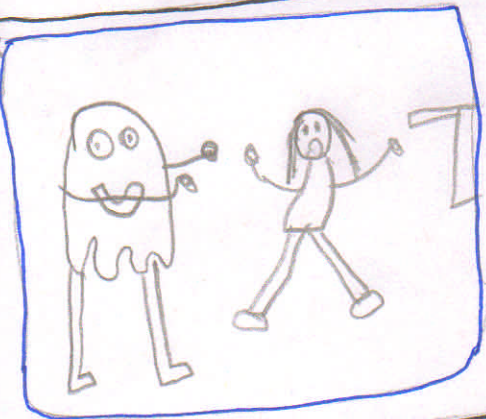

This is Louis.
He is very cheeky and likes playing tricks.

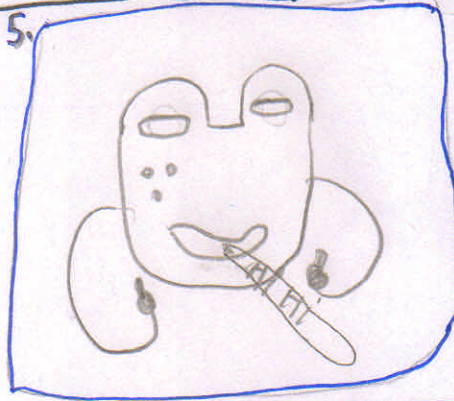

One day at school he was feeling a bit mischievous and poured water on his friend Alice and found it very funny.

He got told off by the teacher but he didn't stop. He came up with another brilliant plan.

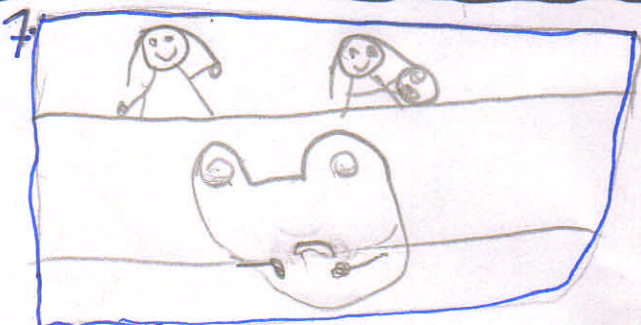

Louis got out the ghost costume and went to frighten Alice. Alice got so scared that she dropped her lunch on the floor.

But again Louis found it really amusing and laughed about it.

And here comes the not so happy dinner lady and gives Louis a timeout. But Louis protested. "It was only a joke!"

Poor Louis! Now he is missing his play time. He is very bored (but he is thinking already). What his very next new exciting joke will be.
