

Louis the spotty green frog ~a mystery story.

One day Louis had just made a lovely chocolate cake. While it was baking he set off bouncing fast along the path when he saw his friend mr Samuel walking with his girl friend mrs holly. Suddenly Louis realised that he left the mixture in the oven too long it would burn. He went home but someone had stolen it he wondered were it could be suddenly he saw someone running down the path. Louis followed it he saw a black coat, he thought that it could be Mr Claptrap, he found out because he was all black. He waited until he got out of the house then he crept in. he found the cake but sadly there was only half left. He went home and ate the chocolate cake with his friends.
