

Louis the spotty green- the mystery story

One great day there was a frog called Louis, Louis loved cooking so one particular day he was cooking some lovely choc chip cookies.

When he was cooking he saw a sausage roll its name was Mr Samuel the long sausage roll but that very second he felt hungry, so he ate the sausage roll. Then Louis had a very long break, but when he came back through he saw that the dough was gone, so he had to go on a big hunt or should I say massive meanwhile at his house there was a big bang, but Louis did not here it. After an hour Louis found the thief it was a spider Louis thought that was very weird the, spider was called Tracy the tarantula, Louis was very cross, so he took Tracy home and cooked her in some lovely delicious soup.
