

Louis the Spotty Green Frog a Mystery Story

Louis was playing with his red and blue ball until it rolled into the garage. He went after it but on the way he fell into the big green pond. He swam out of it though Louis finally got to the garage, the garage was empty it only had a fish called Milo and a mouse called Lilly. They became best friends and five minutes later they made homes for each other. They found a secret door so they went through it. They were a bit scared at first but they got used to it. Suddenly Louis fell into a patch of sinking sand and he found his self in popcorn land Lilly and Milo were upset because they thought he had died. They carried on to find him but unfortunately they ended up sinking in quick sand. On the other hand Louis was stuffing his face with popcorn. Lilly and Milo found them selfs in popcorn land to so they searched everywhere they finally found him. Then they found the red and blue ball at the side of the door they crowned the secret room the play room and lived happily ever after.

By Sami and Millie

