

Lewis the frog and the mystery of the missing sausage

One day Lewis was eating his favourite dinner sausage and froggy chips. He had one sausage left but suddenly "Lewis! Can you find my spanner?" said Daddy so Lewis left the room. While Lewis was gone Daddy frog wrote a note for the froggymobile 2000 and put his pencil down and accidentally replaced it with Lewis's sausage. Then Lewis got back and realised his sausage had been stolen. Who was it was it? Mike frog [Lewis's little brother], Ted [the pet tadpole] or Mummy frog? So Lewis searched high and low left and right suddenly bump! "Oh hello Daddy frog have you seen my sausage?" "No" said Daddy. Hmmmm... suspicious. So Lewis wondered for three hours until Lewis finally remembered. He went to Daddy and he could see a sausage. "Hey there is my sausage" he said to Daddy "Oh and there is my pencil".

So nothing was lost until "Oh no I have not done my homework for Mr Ducky".
