

Lewis

the

Frog

A mystery

day Lewis the frog went out into his pond and noticed that some of his lily pads had gone. He knew that ~~no~~ no fish in his pond would be able to swallow his lily pads apart for one, big bill, the pike. So Lewis went dived into the water and approached big bill and said "have you<sup>u</sup> been eating my lily pads?"

"No, No, No no!" said big bill.

"Then who's has?" said Lewis.

"Maybe you should ask Larry the gold fish," said big bill.

So Lewis the frog went to find Larry the gold fish. When he found Larry he asked the same question as he did to Bill.

"No no no no!" said Larry.

"Well ~~who~~ why did big bill the pike say I could come to you?" cried Lewis.

"Maybe you could go and ask Jubilee the black bird."

So Lewis went to the surface to find Jubilee.

"Well, well who is it here!" screeched the figure in the ~~figure~~ <sup>rose</sup> bush.

"I'm Lewis the frog and you are?"

"Jubilee."

"Well ~~do~~ do you know who's been eating my lily pads," said Lewis.

"Well since I'm good at measurement I have a Idea it would have to be 40km." Screamched Jubile.

"~~Wat!~~ Wat!" said Lewis

"A pike!" screamched Jubile

"you mean big Bill! so he's put me on a wild<sup>x</sup> goose chase!"

So Lewis went off to find big Bill <sup>when</sup> ~~but~~ he eventually found him he spoke in a very cross voice

"You've put me on a wilds goose chase!"

"I thought you would forget every thing but sorry!"

"I forgive you big Bill."

So Lewis swammed away into the merkey pond:
