

LOUIS the frog

by TOM

Once there was a frog called Louis who lived on a big lily pad in a village ~~called~~ ^{the} Pond. One day Louis was out on the ~~lily~~ ^{lily} pad and no one was there, Louis saw a mysterious looking frog in the shadows. Louis decided to follow the mysterious looking frog. ~~Louis~~ Louis knew the weird looking frog would see him so he decided that he had to go under water past the fishing nets. The frogs called it the abandoned water. Louis didn't have time to think about it, because the creature was going. When Louis came out of the water Louis couldn't see the creature but he saw foot prints in the mud. Louis followed the foot prints, they led to a giant rock. Lurking under the rock Louis saw the creature now. It was funny and grey and sat. Louis realised it was a toad. Louis realised that there were lots of rocks and toads Louis had to run away. Finally Louis got back home.
