

LOUIS THE FROG HAS AN ADVENTURE

It was a cold and stormy morning and Louis the Frog went out for a walk. It was so cold that Louis had to get his red rain coat and hat. And off he went. He strolled down to the beach where he saw a flash of lightning and a golden ship appeared. He hopped over and climbed aboard. Then the ship magically started to sail on its own and took Louis to a golden island. Louis hopped off the ship. He was directed to a cave by an old frog. The cave had a strange shaped stone for Louis to push. Louis pushed the stone and a big tunnel appeared. The tunnel led Louis to mountains of treasure. Louis was so excited when he heard a voice, ~~say~~ the voice said "you may take three pieces of treasure with you." Louis looked around and picked the most beautiful pieces he could find and put them in his rain coat pocket.

He hopped back out of the tunnel and on to the ship ready to sail home. A few moments later he arrived back at the beach.

He hopped as fast as he can to his mother's house to tell her all about his adventure.

The End

By Annalease Bartholomew