Louis the frog was excited. he had a birthday party to go to, it was his best friend Freddie's.

Louis decided to make Freddie his favourite sweets, flies dipped in chocolate. Louis thought it would be funny to play a joke on him. Instead of flies, Louis dipped chillies in chocolate.

Freddie was so excited with his birthday treat he tucked straight in. soon Freddie was jumping around with his mouth on fire.

Louis and his friends could not stop laughing, as they watched Freddie drink two jugs of juice straight down.
