LOUIS

THE FROG

PLAYS

A JOKE

Mr. Sunny morning Louis

the frog woke up and felt excited because it was practical jokes day

Louis was just about to start packing his bag for school when suddenly he remembered it was his birthday.

He told his parents and they gave him a practical jokes kit. He thought he would take it to school and wondered what everyone else would take to school. At school it was also junk modelling day so Louis brought in his water pistol

AAARRRHHH! you'll payson shouted they almost screaming

oops said Louis

That night Louis didn't sleep well at all. He felt guilty for what he had done. The night seemed much much longer than usual. Eventually the day had come it was valentines day. Louis felt butterflies in his tummy. What is Trixy didn't love him anymore. But the thing that could matter more than anything else in the whole entire world was that Trixy had changed her mind. She gave him in her very best writing a card that said:

I LOVE YOU LOUIS HAPPY VALLENTINES DAY
LOTS OF LOVE LOVE FROM TRIXY

Do you think Trixy really actually loves Louis or is she just playing another practical joke back?
