

Louis the Frog: A Mystery Story

'Go to bed now' shouted Pa Frog. 'OK' Louis replied.

Louis settled himself down into his duvet covers and waited for Pa and Ma to come and give him a good night kiss. When Pa and Ma eventually did come and give Louis a good night kiss, that was not all they did, they also brought a present.

Louis tore off the wrapping paper before anyone could say 'open it'. It was a book, but not any old book. It was a book that Louis had wanted for most of his life but never actually got. 'How To Solve A Mystery'. 'Oh, thank you pa and ma' Louis shouted and with that he practically jumped onto his parents. 'Now settle down son' Pa frog said, 'you can read your new book for 15 minutes if you like, but read in your bed and do not secretly creep up behind us and settle yourself into a chair like last time.....OK'. said Ma. 'OK Ma' replied Louis.

Ma and Pa came up 30 minutes later and Louis was asleep with his face in the book. In the morning Louis was woken by a scream from his mother, so Louis decided to go and see her. 'Everything OK Ma?' Louis asked. 'Can you not see the twins are missing?' Ma said but screaming as she said it, now Pa heard that, and at that very moment Pa jumped out of bed and shouted 'Meg and Mog are missing!?' 'Yes' shouted Ma and then ran into a corner and started to cry. Louis went to comfort her whilst Pa thought about what they could do.

Once Ma was comforted, Pa came over and said 'right, here is what we are going to do. Louis, we gave you the book 'How To Solve A Mystery, well this is a mystery so go get it. Ma, once you have properly settled yourself down, go look downstairs, I will go in the garden and ask the neighbours. Now go!'

Louis was flicking through the book and then he saw a heading which said 'If Someone Is Missing'. Louis kept his finger in the page and got Pa and Ma. The book said 'get a many people as possible and go everywhere the missing Frog(s) has ever been and if they are not in any of those places call the 'We Are Here Whenever You Need us' team and they will help. Their number is 01473 616084

So Pa, Ma and Louis got Nanny frog and all three Grandpa Frogs and Grandma frog and when the neighbours knew what had happened they helped too. So they looked round Colchester swimming pool which was the last place the twins went. The whole family looked where the twins had been in the past 3 years. They were not in any of those places. Everyone was starting to worry. They were about to call the 'We Are Here Whenever You Need Us' team but then Louis said suddenly 'The tadpole pool!'. OH YES everybody shouted 'and hurt poor Louis ears. So then they all had to walk to the tadpole pool. Everybody thought that Meg and Mog would not be there, but it was worth a try. After a while standing around a tadpole pool they decided it was best to leave' when Grandma Frog with her beady eyes noticed two green thing's." What are those green things?" she asked Louis. " Meg and Mog!" Louis shouted back. Everybody gathered round and gave them hugs, but when they got home they were in epic trouble.
