

Louis The Frog

By Hal Otley Year 4

Louis the frog loved skateboarding. He went to the skate park every weekend to practice his tricks. This time he was bringing his two best friends Sam the toad and Fred the fish because it was his birthday.

Finally the day came, Louis and his Dad went to pick up Sam and Fred. "Happy birthday!" Sam and Fred cheered, "Thanks guys" Louis said back. Louis' Dad started the car and drove off, "Which skate park are we going to?" asked Fred. "The Colchester one indoors" said Dad. "We're here wooooo!" they all shouted. They got out of the car and ran inside while Dad got the skateboards, Dad gave them their skateboards, "Thanks" the boys all said. Louis picked up his skateboard and did an ole (a jump) over a clock. "Me and Sam can't skate" Fred said, "don't worry" Louis said I'll teach you. Louis taught them how to skateboard. First how to move then how to ole and 360.

ed to do, Louis did it like the duck like before and got through. He got to the next round where he was against one of the best skaters in the world. Luckily the other person cracked his skateboard by accident, Louis went off to get a drink of water. After a few minutes he went back on stage but to his surprise his skateboard had gone. Louis ran up some steps and snatched the microphone out of the commentators hand. "Someone has taken my skateboard" he shouted and no one can leave until we find it. Louis ran into the Junior skate park bit, he saw a one-year old chewing his board. "Who put my skateboard here?" A guy with a security camera came over to Louis, "I know who did it I saw it on the camera" he said. "It was Ryan Baley the guy you were up against, see?" The man showed Louis the video, Ryan got disqualified and was banned forever and Louis got first place!
