

LOUIS THE FROG

Louis

Louis the frog was going to bed and he heard a noise so he went down stairs. He saw a shadow go past so he hurried back up the stairs to get his friends and they all went down stairs again and switched the light on. Five minutes later bang! They had a power cut and they were all scared. One by one they all went missing and Louis was the only one left .

Louis could hear his friends calling him , help Louis help! But they sounded like they were underground one minute and up in the loft the next . Louis was confused because he couldn't get to help his friends.

Just as he was going to give up looking for his friends there was a loud knock at the door and at the same time the lights came back on, he slowly opened the front door to find all his friends standing there but couldn't work out what had just happened?
