

Louis the frog

Letter

One day there lived a family of frogs, but there was one frog that would never behave. And his name was Louis, Louis was a ugly frog and he lives with his family in a muddy pond.

One night he dreamed about being rich and having the ~~cleanist~~ pond in the world. He woke up and told his ~~perants~~ ^{cleanist} parents about his dream they wished it happend to them to but they know it won't happen to them.

His father thought about it again and said if we put our minds to it we might be able to clean our pond out and sell it for a lot of money.

So they all made a plan, and they are now trying to clean all the mud out of it so they have made a start.

They are about half way now it defenetly looks better than it looked befor, (A week later.) They called the company to tell them they ~~se~~ have a pond to sell so they made a sign outside.

Someone said they would like to by it for £105.00p they were so pleased someone wanted to by there pond, but now they need to find a pond.
