

Louis the frog plays a joke
one day Louis went out to play with his friends.
Louis friends were playing tag, so Louis joined in.
Suddenly Louis had an idea it was to play a joke on his friends. While his friends ^{were} busy playing tag Louis hid behind a tree and started howling like a wolf. All of his friends stopped what they were playing and looked around scared.
Louis was laughing to himself. All of Louis friends ran ~~off~~ home. He then realised that his friends did not find his joke was funny so he had to go around all of their ^{houses} ~~houses~~ to say sorry and explain it was him making the ~~howling~~ noise. All of Louis friends laughed and went back to play.
this time they kept an eye on Louis.
