

One sunny day Louis was jumping on the lilly pads and he had a idea. So Louis went ~~had~~ home and came back to the pond with polish and a tuster, he polished all the Lilly pads, they were all slippery and shiny, then Louis called over to his best friend Ryan to come over to his pad and play. Ryan was very excited and gave a big jump onto the lilly pad When he slipped off the pad into the water with a big splash, Louis laughed and giggled.
