

Louis the frog plays a joke

Once upon a time there was a spotted frog called Louis. He had lots of friends Callum the caterpillar, Leo the ladybird, Henry the hairy spider and Abigail the ant. Louis loved to play jokes on his friends. One day Louis told his friends that the Queen from London was coming to have tea with them. Everyone was very excited. Henry the hairy spider set the table. Leo the ladybird put a mat on the floor for the Queen to walk on and Callum the caterpillar fetched the food. She's coming shouted Louis. A big silver sparky car came and they all lined up ready to see the Queen. The car door opened and out flew the Queen bee. Got you shouted Louis hopping about laughing his head off. Another great joke by Louis. The end.

Callum Protheroe