

Louis The FROG PLAYS A JOKE

Thomas Wolfe

Once upon a time there lived a frog called Louis. One day Louis played a joke on all the frogs, he put glue on all of the lily pads, and the others gave him a row and shouted at him. Louis was sad so he said Sorry to every one of them.
All of his friends forgave him so they had a party in the pond and all lived happily ever after.
