Louie the frog plays a joke!

once up on a time there lived a frog family.

The frogs names were louie/alice /jayne /beck.

They were a typical frog family. But one frog called louie loved playing top trumps. He invited his 3 freinds to play top trumps, but secretly put 3 aces on his lilypad as a joke. His freinds were very upset because he cheated. For punishment he did their chores. They wern't that easy so his the 3 freinds laughed at him: ha ha ha ha ha ha. But he really did deserved it and will think hard before playing another joke on his friends.
