Louis the Frog and the Mystery

One day Louis went for a walk with his friends Lilly the Lizard and Andrew the Mouse. When they got home Louis' mum was cooking tea. That night there was a long, loud creak. Louis woke up. He got up and went to see his mum but his mum had gone! Louis went and woke up his friends. His friends woke up and said "What is it Louis?"

Louis said "My mum's gone!"

"Your mum's gone? Where?" asked Lilly.

"I don't know," cried Louis.

"Then why don't you tell your Dad?" yawned Andrew.

"OK then," cried Louis.

"We'll come with you," said Louis' friends.

So they went to see Louis' Dad.

"Dad," said Louis.

"Yes," yawned Dad.

"Mum's gone missing,"

"Go and find her," said Dad.

"OK," said Louis.

"We will," said Lilly.

"Can we have breakfast first?" grumbled Andrew.

"No!" shouted Lilly and Louis.

So they went to go and save Louis' mum.

After hours of walking, everyone was exhausted.

"Are we nearly there yet?" yawned Andrew, way behind the others.

"Yes, now hurry up, ok?"

Suddenly Louis heard a cry. Louis looked around "Mum!" he shouted. Louis heard a mumble. He looked around again.

He thought for a while. Then he had an idea. He told his friends his idea. "That's a great idea," cried Lilly. So they tried it. It worked. So there was a secret door, Louis opened it. Suddenly there was a BANG! The door slammed open. Louis stepped in, his friends followed. Suddenly Louis and his friends had some cool costumes on. Louis felt a tingle and found his Mum.

"Mum!" cried Louis, but his Mum was next to a hideous monster. "Oh no!" cried Louis, then he remembered the tingle. "That's it!" cried Louis. So Louis tried it on the monster. "Yes!" So he grabbed his Mum and ran home as quick as possible before the monster woke up again.

When they got home they all had breakfast and Louis told his Mum and Dad his adventure.
