Louis the frog and the mystery of the missing ruby

Louis is a frog. A very happy frog! Louis has a friend called Gary snail. Gary has rocket roller skates. He got them for his birthday! They hopped and skated to the castle. Suddenly King frog was in horror! He had lost his ruby! Without it all ponds would dry up. "Louis can you help me? Said king frog. "Of course!" said Louis.

Because Louis is brainy he is very good at looking. "It's no use I can't find it." Said Louis. He went back to the park. Suddenly he found a secret door. He went in he got special agent clothes on him. He was now agent Louis! Bang! He fell into a trap. Some more doors opened. It was professor hedgehog. He was evil. He had eyes like pools of fire. He had the ruby! "You're not having it!" grumbled the hedgehog. Just then Gary came zooming and knocked professor hedgehog over. Louis got the ruby!! That gave Louis a super power. It was now Louis could fly!

He zoomed back to the king with Gary. Well done! Said king frog. Now the ponds have come back. You are now prince Louis. He said. Yippee shouted Louis. And they lived happily ever after.
