

One day Louis the frog and the pet squad which was made up of four animals; there was Sam the squirrel, Ben the bird, Tom the tortoise and David the dog.

They were crime fighters. They were on the lookout for Roger the rabbit and his tricks.

But one thing was wrong. Sam the squirrel was on holiday in Hawaii, so they wanted to know if there was any trouble in Hawaii, so they all decided to go. So Ben flew them there. When they got there, to their surprise, they all saw a giant monster drop in front of them. They thought it was a rabbit's work and they were right! It was even water proof and armed in spikes and lasers. Then Louis had a plan. He hopped on the monster's head so it went mad. Then the others ran past then he hopped off it and laughed.

The next morning the friends went to the jungle. They played and played and played until David saw the branches move. They were all scared but Louis, he knew it was the monster and it looked more vicious than ever! It had the sacred Jewels. Louis hopped up and grabbed the jewels, gave them to the frog king & queen, got a prize and as for the rabbit controlling the monster he went to jail!
